

Supervision/Administration Division Director Candidates

Rebecca Musselman

Rebecca Musselman is a native Floridian and grew up within the Pasco County School System. She received her Bachelor of Music Education from the University of Tampa and her Masters of Education in Educational Leadership from Saint Leo University. She is entering her 15th year in education and is more excited than ever to help arts programs flourish within her district and across the state. Rebecca began her career as a music educator teaching at both the elementary and middle school levels. Over the past three years, her focus has been to reinvigorate the visual arts programs within the Pasco County School District and assist the team of visual arts teachers in showcasing the K-12 Visual Arts Programs throughout the district and within the community.

Ashley Spero

Ashley Spero is the Orange County Public Schools (OCPS) Visual & Performing Arts Resource Teacher for Dance, Theatre and Visual Arts and offers curriculum-based support to over 250 arts educators. Her role includes facilitator for arts education best practices trainings, curator for the Educational Leadership Center's monthly art exhibits, facilitator and participant in summer curriculum writing teams, member of the OCPS Visual Arts Performance Assessment design team, participant in the annual Florida Arts Supervisors meetings, and organizer and distributor of information on community-based professional development, contests and festivals. Ashley earned both of her undergraduate degrees from Florida State University, and her master's degree in Educational Leadership from the University of Central Florida. She also currently serves as a member of the Teacher Advisory Board for the Orlando Repertory Theatre, dance educator at St. Luke's School of the Arts, and teaching artist for youth summer arts camps at Osceola Center for the Arts and the Orlando Repertory Theatre.
